

Job description

Our heart beats for fruit and vegetables! As a full-service provider, we offer a varied spectrum of activities. As a traditional company, we combine classic values with agile methods and always move at eye level, trend-oriented and always with a good deal of dynamism and spirit.

On our development journey we could always rely on the one decisive component: A motivated and strong team!

But we want even more: Tradition meets Future! And now you come into the game!

For our office in Kent we are looking for a

Sales & Procurement Manager (f/m/d) England

Your tasks:

- Marketing of fruit & vegetables to the English wholesale and retail trade as well as HoReCa and industrial processing
- Procurement and sales responsibility
- Negotiating prices and conditions with international producers and trading partners
- Create annual plans, programmes and be responsible for budgets
- Ensuring the availability of goods
- Development of assortment and concept strategies
- Evaluation of key figures and measures to be derived from them

Your skills

- A committed and team-oriented personality with high social competence and communication strengths
- A successfully completed apprenticeship (ideally in the food industry) and/or studies or specialist training and further education
- Several years of professional experience in purchasing or sales
- Ideally existing network within the English and European supermarket chain and/or the processing industry
- Negotiating skills and structured way of working
- Analytical thinking and routine handling of numbers and data
- Further language skills such as Spanish or German desirable

Your perspective

- Working in a company with tradition that is always one step ahead of its time - that's us.
- As part of us, you have a lot of responsibility right from the start. BUT of course we don't let you bite the bullet! We support you with our onboarding programme from day 1.

So, instead of counting peas... Curious?

Then become part of our KÖLLA Family!

Apply directly by email jobs@koella.com. We take every application personally! And P.S.: More than a CV is not necessary.

Do you have any questions?

Then please contact:

jobs@koella.com

Human Resources